

Letter of Commitment for Intellectual Property Protection

In order to effectively protect intellectual property rights, jointly safeguard the legitimate rights and interests of all parties in the competition and ensure the fair, just and orderly development of the competition, I, as the participant of 2020, the 5th International 3D Printing & Design Competition(I3DC), hereby make the following commitments:

1. I admit that my participation in this competition is at my free will. I have read the competition regulations of the activity in detail and I agree to abide by the regulations of the competition.
2. I promise that the submitted entries are original and have full intellectual property rights over the entries (including but not limited to creativity, documents, source files, pictures, videos, etc.). There is no plagiarism or copying of any other person or party 's works, and no infringement of any other person or party's intellectual property rights. If any legal disputes arising therefrom, the legal responsibility shall be borne by myself.
3. The organizing committee of the competition reserves the right to display, publicize and promote the entries, and promises to consult with the participating teams or individuals about other commercial uses of the entries.
4. I promise that the organizer of the competition will have the priority to transfer and transform the intellectual property rights of the entries under the same conditions.
